To my brother, Edward R. Rucinski . . .It was a very sad day, dear brother, when you left this world. We are approaching the fourth anniversary of your passing, but it seems like it was only yesterday that we said our last goodbyes at the hospital. And what a wonderful time we had that evening as we remembered all the great (and funny!) times we had in years gone by!Although you were unable to talk much during our visit, the dozens of smiles that crossed your face as we laughed away the night while all the family members who were there told us their stories about you. We could see the surprise on your face and knew exactly what you were thinking — and how much you were enjoying all the long-forgotten tales they knew about you. It was an incredibly joyful visit! None of us will ever forget those memories. They continue to warm our hearts every time we think of you.We will always miss you, but you will never be forgotten. You are my brother forever.Much Love,Ken
