NOV 19, 2017

Larry G. Ward left us on Sunday November 19th, 2017 at the Hospice of the Western Reserve, where he had been a volunteer for over twenty five years. He was surrounded by family, friends, and love. Larry had a full and vibrant life. He served in the military, worked for decades at Republic Steel Corp., and most importantly, shared his life for over forty years with his beloved partner, Frank Oberstar. Their their world revolved around the dog show world and through that many friends were made, much travel and entertainment ensued and their lives were lived to their fullest.

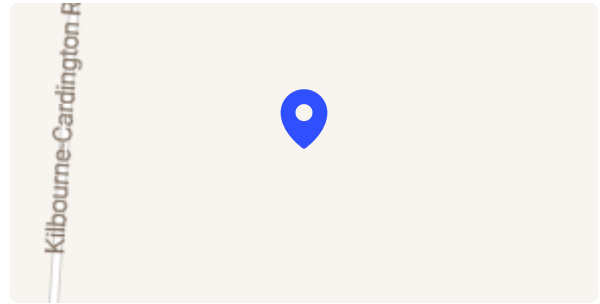

Larry asked that his body be cremated and he requested no services.
