I'm going to miss our conversations. We shared a love of movies and would talk for hours sometimes trying to decide which movie to see next. The movie we saw was The Peanuts movie with her mom and Bonnie and her husband. The next movie was Dunkirk which was very intense. It was a bit too loud. We talked about our common love for the Lord and she taught me so much about friendship and Faith. She has a very strong Faith which blessed every one who knew her. I love you Gabbi, I'll see you in The Kingdom of God one day. I know you're already there. Your friend forever, John.

I remember all the holidays up at great grandmas house. Christmas time we as kids opening gifts and great grandma didnt care if we had the paper all over the living room and also Easter egg hunts in the back yard and she would put change inside and we would go inside and open the eggs to see how much money we would get. Family reunions swinging or going swimming in the little pond. I will miss you cousin. Rest easy Gabbie
