Dwayne Kessie posted:

My mother was a hard working dedicated woman, who raised me single handed with no support. She was the person who helped with my homework, taught me to throw a ball, did tackling drills with me in the front yard, took care of me when I was sick... all the things that parents do. She also worked 2 jobs to help me get through college. She worked as a secretary for my father at Kar Kraft (who I did not know was my father until I was 25), then SK Wellman friction products (which she retired from), and a waitress at Oriental Terrace. She retired a few months after the announcement that Trevor would be coming... She lived for her grandkids. She loved being part of their lives. She loved being part of the family we created with our circle of friends. She even picked up a few extra grandkids along the way. She loved being a grandma... Sometimes she even became the kids attorney- negotiating a lighter sentence. She taught me how to love with my whole heart. she taught me by example that the children ALWAYS come first. She taught her grandkids compassion. My heart is hurting to know that she is gone... My soul is at peace knowing that she will no longer suffer the horrible diseases of Dementia and Alzheimer's Mom I love you so much and I will miss you... I will continue to make sure that your memory lives on through your amazing grandchildren. Rest In Peace Fat girl on the end...
