My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Aunt Thelma was a funny, feisty and tough lad who always gave great hugs and a kiss on the cheek. I'll always remember Christmas get together's and lunch at The Pickle. The only comfort is that she is at peace and with Uncle Stanley. Cousin Jim.

Donna Horvath lit a candle in honor of Thelma.

Our deepest sympathy to Kim, Ken, Michele and the rest of the entire Kaye family on the passing of Thelma Kaye. She is now at peace with her husband in Heaven and, because of this, she is most probably happier than she has been for a long time. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of the family. Rest in peace Thelma Kaye! You shall be missed by many!

I am so sorry to hear about your mother. She was a kind and friendly person. Her and your dad and sister had been coming into Drug Mart for years. She always talked about her dog Susie. May she be at peace .
