Mrs. McCampbell was a fine person and terrific neighbor. We used to play various sporting events at her neighbor's home, the Angelo Martin Family, and invariably she let us use her home and yard for games of every imagination. We enjoyed growing up and her encouragement and support of our efforts. She was a fine lady, pleasant and kind in every way. The world needs more Dorothy McCampbells, and it is hard to lose the original. All of her Dalebrook Estates friends mourn the loss of a good and wonderful woman. Jim Trakas, Independence, Ohio
