YaYa's smile was amazing. She always made sure everyone felt loved/ cared for. I'm proud that my son Seth had YaYa for his Great Auntie. I'm thankful that she touched his life. YaYa always made us feel welcomed at her home, while offering us a drink or snack. Her Italian wedding soup was quite tasty. Cheers to an amazing, independent, courageous family member. I know YaYa went straight to heaven, no purgatory as some believe. Her heart was pure with only love. She was a forgiving woman. I know for sure our Mighty God forgave her transgressions. YaYa has a new body now, her mighty Savior greeted her at the gate with a huge hug of welcome home. She is dancing on streets of gold with magical glistening gems around her. Her loved ones surround her, dancing in the midst of her. YaYa loved so deeply that she left part of her spirit in the hearts of each of her loves to let them know that she will forever be with them. I'm honored to have crossed paths with her. Love.
