Lori was a devoted friend to many and will be remembered for her dedication to nurturing her cherished relationships with dozens of friends and relatives. Her loving spirit and her interest in all things spiritual, creative and related to cats (meow), a true Aquarian, as she would say. She was a great lover of music, conversations, crafting, cooking and spending time with those she loved. whether it was attending a show, visiting Northfield Park or setting up a family party. She will be forever missed for her warm presence at every gathering, her availability for a phone call at any time of day, her sense of humor and her ability to tell you the implications of the daily movements of the stars and planets. Lori brightened the lives of many with her care, greeting cards for every occasion and her deep and sincere interest in the lives, concerns and thoughts of those around her. She joins her beloved mother Suzanne, who passed in 1997 and father, Bob who passed in 2022. She will always be remembered and deeply missed.
