Kenny was one of the nicest, funniest, n an all around great cousin of mine, He was always smiling, and making funny comments n jokes, I'm so very glad he had a good family of his own with wife and children, and had a happy lifel wish I could attend, but I have plans with my daughter Gina that morning with our church for a mother's day lunch n tea, we have had tickets for weeks. God Bless his family, Lord to give them peace n comfort at this bad time, RIP for my great n fun cousin Kenny....Love n Blessings
