The world has lost one of its brightest lights. Beloved Aunt Helene was a women filled with so much love, generosity and laughter. She was a true reflection of God on earth. She will be missed terribly by those left to carry on her legacy of loving all who met her. If only we could have even a spark of her zest for life we would be ever so fortunate. Miss you terribly Dearest. Niece, Jul & Nan in Arizona(planting a cactus in your name to hear you laugh once more)

Dear Ed and Fr. Eric, I have so many memories filled with warmth and laughter. One of the best was Helene driving me home from St. Casimir's New Years' eve party. The grace and elegance, and love that your mother showed to everyone she met with be in our hearts always. Our deepest condolences from the United Kingdom. Love Cheryl Kelley-Burn and Phil Burn.
