Gosh, I wish I could see and hear Rudy doing "Nobody's Darling But Mine". Goodbye my friend. I met Rudy about 17 years ago at the United Methodist Church of Macedonia at a bluegrass jam. Made friends with him and always enjoyed seeing him and his dedicated wife, Delores. He never minded playing with a mediocre player like me. By Rudy.

Mary and I drove through Johnstown and saw a truck that had cut the corner too tightly and got stuck with police all over. I said to Mary, "I wonder if Rudy ever did something like this?" She said she didn't know but Rudy won a Good Driver trophy from Jones Transport. Did you know that?
