Â Â Â I was lucky to have worked with Vince Liotta and even luckier to call him friend. A few years ago, I supervised Court Community Service in Garfield Heights and he did all the coordinating.Â If you have ever worked with Vince you understand what that term means.Â I often would tell him how much appreciated his directness and how much time it saved us.Â I liked it because you always knew where you stood with him.Â I really think anyone who knew Vince really knew how they stood with him. We would tell jokes and cut up and despite that got a lot of work accomplished.Â I really can't begin to say whatÂ special guy he was, I am fortunate and a better person having known him.
