There are so many things that will forever remind me of Dave. Pink button down polo shirts, good food, the park, music, the Rock Hall, Put in Bay, Batman...the list goes on. Of all these things, I will miss his laugh and the way he made me laugh the most. I have never felt such a profound sadness. It is at times difficult to breathe. I miss my friend! I love you forever.

I hadn't seen Dave in years, but the one thing I remember the most was his dry, quirky sense of humor. He could deliver a one liner like pro. Dave was just an all around nice guy. My thoughts and prayers go out to his family and friends.

We will all miss Dave's amazing sense of humor he could take a few words and the twist he put on them could make you laugh for days. His laugh too was priceless... I regret that I never got to hear him sing.

How blessed my family and I are to have known this young man. Dave felt like family from the moment I met him. He brought love, joy and promise where ever he went. He lived each day to the fullest, working and playing, always with love. Family was everything to Dave and he included many in his family. I will celebrate his life. I will miss him.

I was very fortunate to know Dave from when I lived in the Tampa area. He was a kind and wonderful friend to me who always made the effort to stay in touch and even sent a care package to welcome me to my new city when I moved to New Mexico. Over the years Dave and I had many interesting conversations about collecting, music, politics, family, the meaning of friendship and much more. He was one of the most caring and kind people I have ever known and I will miss him tremendously. I send my deepest condolences to his beloved family and friends.

I met Dave when I was living in Tampa and we quickly became good friends. He was the definition of a what a true friend is. I will miss him greatly. He was one of the few people from Tampa I stayed in contact with when I moved to California and he was always one of the first I wanted to see when I came to visit. He had an uplifting energy about him & a wonderful sense of humor. He will never be forgotten. Words fall short of expressing my sorrow to all his family and friends.

David a special nephew, with a big heart. I have wonderful memories of you at our cookouts. I'll never forget when you would come over after you were grown up and ask, Aunt Wilma am I big enough to eat at the big table now? Now I know you are setting at the big table to eat. Fond Memories. Love, Aunt Wilma
