Dear Greg & Family Colleen & I were greatly saddened to learn of your loss. I remember several times when your dad would drive Owen McCafferty and me home after band as SIHS -- not exactly on the way home for you. It was most gracious and I recall his ebullient personality. You will be in our thoughts and prayers. John Cooney, '70

Our sincere condolences. Here's a story you probably haven't heard. About 32 years ago, my new bride and I, both very young, bought a house in Garfield Heights from a miscreant who refused to leave it at the appointed time. Ted helped us out, at no charge (we certainly could not afford a lawyer). He patiently explained the steps to take to get an eviction order, and how to recover the back rent owed to us under the purchase agreement (which ultimately was paid in full). I've never forgotten his kindness and professionalism. In fact, that episode was the catalyst I needed to push me over the line to go to law school. Greatest generation, indeed.

Ted Holtz was simply one of the finest, kindest, funniest most solid & centered human beings I've ever had the good fortune to meet. His concern for others was so complete, his knowledge of Cleveland law, politics and history so captivating, that every chat with him quickly became an indelible memory. I had the good fortune to visit him alone in his office once, and while the immediate business at hand took just a moment, he spent another two hours regaling me with stories I'll never forget. I only wish I had taped them. But he lives on, and vibrantly, in his two sons, his pride & joy. Dear Helen and family, may the memory and recounting of his manifold good works bring you some peace in this difficult time.
