My deepest condolences to the Salomone family. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. I pray that God gives you strength in these difficult times. I will miss Tino very much. He embraced the simple things in life that we all take for granted. His positive attitude was always a reminder to me to enjoy every day. Whenever I asked, "How are you today?" he would say "I'm in love". He was a great man that loved and lived life to its fullest. He always had an interesting story to share about his life. I will miss his salutes as I drove past him in the driveway and hearing him merrily singing as he drove his broken down tractor he so proudly called his Ferrari. He was our carpenter, plumber, roofer and most importantly organic engineer. We will all miss him tremendously.
