Aunt Rose has always held a special space in my heart. She was like a mother to me. She was always so loving and understanding. She was calm and the peace maker. I would have bent backwards for her, anytime, anywhere. I will cherish and treasure all the times I spend with her and the family, especially at Christmas. I always looked forward to those fond memories spend. She is with her soul mate, Uncle Jim. He will take care of her now. I miss you already Aunt Rose along with Uncle Jim. God Bless both of them!!! God Bless their familieis as well.
