Hey big Ray! You crossed my mind since Ryan just recently turned 30. Could you imagine the world if he and I were together in our thirties?! Let's just not... I just told someone the story the other day about when you took me, Ry, Greg D, Cassie, and Nicole to Cinemark when it first opened and we watched "At First Sight" with Val... Such a strange move for us to watch as teenagers. You were always the best "big brother"...you're greatly missed

I am very sorry to hear of the death of your loved one. When I lost my father on May 7th this Bible scripture brought me much comfort. I pray that it brings you comfort too. Rev. 21: 4....."And He will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning, nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away". Please read Acts 24:15 also. Take Care.

Dear Price Family, All I know is that you should be proud of Ray and the son you raised and keep all those memories close to heart and he will always be with you. I hadn't seen him in quite awhile and he came up to Applebees where I work and gave me this great big bear hug. Honestly had no clue who he was and then he gave me a hint of the BIG RED VAN that use to drive them home from St. Martins. You have very special memories of him and he will always be close at heart.
