One of the sweetest and most generous person I've ever met. Out of nowhere she asks me one day what type of toys does my son like and tell her hot wheels and the next day she comes to work with about 30 hot wheels and it almost made me tear up a little. Going forward she always brought my son something for his birthday and that's something she didn't have to do and myself and son will forever be grateful and never forget that. She will be truly missed and this saddens me big time. I know we all have a time but it should always be when we're a lot older and in our sleep so there's no pain and suffering. Love u Eva and we'll see u again and we'll play with some hot wheels when that time comes

It is with such a heavy heart that this is written. Aunt Eva was the sweetest woman I've ever met. Her heart was pure and full of love. I will miss her sweet face and terrific hugs. My heart aches for Brian and Scott. I know the pain all too well. May you make peace with knowing she has your dad again. My sincere condolences to the family.
