Beautiful lady this seems quite surreal after having spoken to you so recently. I had missed working with you then now I will always have to miss working with you again, your laughter, your calmness, your fun. I can only hope your four legged friends were there to meet you and take care of you and I know you will be an angel watching over Greg from here on. Sleeping with the angels x

Michelle and I have been friends since the 4th grade. We lost touch for a bit but found each other again a few years back. Coincidentally, we had chosen the same profession and were both proud crazy dog ladies! We were just talking about getting together now that we were both back in C-town. I am so shocked by this and send my deepest condolences to Greg and the pups.

Such a amazing lady, I have worked with Michelle for many years and her deadiation , passion and energy was always outstanding. Such a kind and thoughtful person that would do anything she could to help a person or a situation. We had the pleasure of meeting in person in London and that will stay with me. Michelle you will be so missed by so many. My thoughts are with Greg and your friends and family at this saddest time.

I was lucky enough to work with Michelle, when she worked for ADP in White Marsh, MD. Michelle was easily one of the kindest, most caring people I have ever met. My prayers are with you Greg, the rest of her family and friends. I'm absolutely heartbroken at hearing this news. Michelle was so loved by the entire ADP family that worked together there.

My sincerest condolences to Michelle's family, and sending you wishes for peace and healing. ~ I never had the pleasure of meeting Michelle in person, but she was the best coworker! I looked forward to our working together and knew that she would have everything prepared and under control. She was a total professional, but she had the gift of keeping things fun. I'll never forget her laugh, or her way of encouraging the team during challenges on projects.~ Michelle! I'm going to miss you. You were the best. Rest easy, Michelle, and God bless you. To know you as a colleague leaves a huge void in many lives. Your dedication and skill was inspiring and brought out the best in people. While your humor and occasional "saltiness" made us love you even more. To know you as a friend leaves another void as well. One that I'm not sure we can comprehend right now. You were a good person, kind and caring. You were also funny and sarcastic with just enough of the devil on your shoulder to make our lives more interesting. You listened to my rants, helped me find solutions, shared my love of vintage, inspired me to be a better aunt, crafted with me, and so much more. I hope you know how much you are loved and how very much you will be missed. To Greg, her parents, her brother, her nephews, and all her family and friends: my prayers are with you all. I pray that you are able to focus on her laugh, her joy of dogs, and all that she gave to this world.

Although I never had the privilege of meeting Michelle in person, I grew over the years as a fellow project manager to have the highest regard for her competence, professionalism, dedication, and passion for doing things right. While her passing is a terrible loss for those of us who have been blessed to have worked with her, I am grieved to consider the impact of her departure on her family, about whom she frequently spoke in love. My prayers are especially with her husband and nephews during this time--please know she spoke often of you with pride and joy during project calls.

My time with Michelle was brief but quality. I had the honor to work with her over the past year and she continues to this day to be an influence. The world lost an amazingly thoughtful, kind and professional person with a wonderful wit and brilliant mind. I will cherish memories of our "therapy" calls to discuss the project which often wound up on tangents regarding family, the latest recipe, pets, your trips with your nephews, or home projects. You will be sorely missed Michelle by your family and friends. You made an impact on so many. Rest in peace.

Michelle was the best of us all. She made colleagues become friends, she made work become fun, she made things matter. With every fibre of her being she cared. I have had the honour and privilege to work with Michelle for three years, grateful that I had the opportunity to meet her in person when Michelle and Greg visited London. She made the North Atlantic Ocean seem like a small pond, I always felt closer than the 3000 miles that separated us all. Michelle touched many lives here in the UK. She is loved, she will be missed, and memories will be cherished. I hope she knew that I hope she knew that what she did mattered, that we loved and respected her. My thoughts go out to all those close to her, especially you Greg. She wasn't just part of our team, she was part of our family too. Michelle we are so much poorer for losing you, but I am so much richer for knowing you. You shine so bright, we carry that light in us all now. Rest well my friend. I will see you for pancakes some day.
