Liz was a bright light in the world. We lost touch these last years but I have wonderful memories of our friendship during our youth. i remember walking around the neighborhood with her talking and laughing. She had the best laugh, a strong, happy belly laugh. She was always had a smile when she greeted you and had a great love of her family, animals, and kids. She was very proud of her Polish heritage and loved the summer she traveled to Poland, I still have the necklace she brought back for me. You were a great caring brother to her Andy, and I know she appreciated all you did for her. My deepest sympathy.
