My first real connection with my uncle Jack was when my dad (Bill) and Jack and I built my first house. I was amazed how well they worked together without even talking. Dad was framing the roof, Jack was the cut man on the ground and all Jack had to do was look up where Dad was and cut the rafter, hand it up to Dad and it fit perfect. He was good. After the three of us built that house there was common bond and respect beyond the family level that lasted our entire life. On Saturday's the three of us would sometimes meet up at Dads house, sit on the tailgate of my truck BS for hours. Those were the days. Jack always kept in touch with me. He would call me out of the blue and we talk construction and later on pension benefits and Social Security. After my Dad died Jack had a picture of him on the frig He said he talked to him everyday. Jack loved his brother I loved him. Rest In Peace Jack you certainly earned it. Billy

I found out a day too late that we lost John. I worked where he lived and saw him every day and we always had nice conversations. I used to warn him when he was driving backwards of what was behind him and he got a kick out of that. I surely would have been there for him. Rest in peace dear friend, Louise Fiszer.

Jack was our next door neighbor in Garfield Hts. He gave me my first job, baby sitting for their three kids Jack, Beth and Cliff. They were not by any means babies at the time either. They were good kids. Jack gave me some carpentry tips when I was building a fort in the backyard. He always had great flower beds and a terrific lawn. He was a very nice man and a good neighbor. He will be missed. My wife and I wish to express our condolences to the whole family (which has grown significantly I see!). I would have very much liked to have come to the wake, but I have some underlying health conditions that prohibits me from taking a chance with Covid-19. The whole family should be very proud of Jack Lawry. Fred & Mary Ann Lyzen
