Dear Sheila, Dave & Family - such a sad and painful loss; please consider yourselves hugged with comfort, peace and love. From decades ago, during our days as students in Maple, I can still feel the love and fun of your household expressed in your Dad's ever-present smile and laughter - such a joyful man! I can only imagine the void this creates, even as you trust your Dad has found the Peace he deserves. I know your Mom will continue to appreciate the loving care and attention you provided to your Dad over many challenging years, and, that same care and attention you will continue to extend to her as you all cope in life without him. With Love, Phyllis
