Justin Richard Mendoza

Gina Masangcay lit a candle in honor of Justin.

Justin, I remember your trips here to California with your family. You stayed with us and was always welcomed. You said you loved staying here because our showers were awesome with 2 shower heads. You were the one who installed chrome onto my computer and taught me to use that for faster service. And you were right. I loved your soft spirit, gentle smile and kind heart. You loved InNOOut when you visited. Your life here was shortened but I believe God knew your purpose here has been fulfilled. We will meet again my great nephew and I can just hear you playing your beats up in Heaven and enjoying all the food that Lola Emy and Ate Tessie are cooking. Give your Lolo Mario and great big hug from me. We will miss you immensely.
