Joe, Ive known you since you were a little boy and while I have a lot of memories of you growing up, the one I think about most is when you told me I was your girlfriend, until you kicked me to the curb for the little girl down the street. A funny and sweet memory I have of you. I am so sorry your life turned out to be so challenging and you became so lost. Our Lord has you now and I know you are at peace.

Joe, Hard feelings left behind, the past is past, lay it to rest. Despite any of that Kaiden has always been informed of your place in his life and will continue. Pictures of you have always hung on the wall above his headboard. When he could talk, he said "My daddy is Joe". He may be left standing alone in your absence but he is loved by many & we all watch over him. Me & Deanna hoped that one day things would change so you & Kaiden would have those father son moments. It's what we were striving for. Life took a different turn for you. What's left to say now is Rest In Peace.

I am so sorry to the family for their loss. Joey you were a childhood friend of mine. I remember running and playing in the neighborhood whenever you came over with your Uncle Dan. I remember you being one of the first people I knew that would actually play video games with me and wouldn't just pass me off because I was a girl. It's crazy how time seperates people and wish dearly we remained in contact as the years went by. I wish you peace as well as your family peace. Love, Kim Netzband (Jimmy's niece)

Joe, I remember all the times you would go and hang out with Dan and Jim. I lived giving you Aunt Nancy on those cheeks and when you say me the first thing you would do is cover your cheeks. I tried talking with you about your life, but you were stubborn and bull headed. I love you and wish you peace. Watch over Kaiden and keep him safe and happy. Love you, Terry

Joe. We have so much history together. Good & bad. We share a son together. A child who looks just like you. I have no words right now. I just don't know what to say. I promise I will take care of Kaiden. And I promise he will always know about you and remember you. I'm so sorry this happened, I really am. We all love you very much. Go see our other baby, take care of her, watch over Kaiden. & go see everyone you haven't seen in a long time & have fun.

Allison, there are never enough words to express the grief you must be going thru. Hold Kaiden close by & hug him tight. I feel terrible for you & family. Deepest sympathy & may your memories help. Hugs & Prayers
