Our Sincere Heartfelt Condolences to Our Zia Loria's Family. Zia Loria was Such a Beautiful Woman of Grace & Class and so very Loving with a welcoming Heart. Always opening her Heart and her Home to Us ALL. Zia was an amazing cook and served up huge delicious meals (as though effortless, but you knew she worked hard to make them spectacular as always!) when ever her Family from Windsor came to visit as though we were Royalty. She had a way of always making you feel Special! And we Did! Something we will never forget! Nor her. Memories of Our Zia Loria will be forever locked in Our Hearts! Especially the Celebration for her 90th Birthday her 4 Sons put on for her at the Fogolar ... a "Full Hall" of Family & Friends "Celebrating A Woman of Beauty Strength Kindness Generosity Compassion & Love". A day of Pure Joy! Though Zia was Petite ... She was Tiny & Mighty. A Perfect Package of Special. Covid restrictions has kept us from being together. If we could, we'd be with you! Please know that We will be there in Spirit and in Heart and will be keeping you all in Our Prayers. Together or Apart ... you are All Always here with US in Our Hearts. May you find Comfort knowing your Precious Beautiful Angel has her Wings! And is in the arms of Zio Elio. What a Blessed reunion that must have been! All Our Love Today ... Tomorrow & Always Sue & Dave Lenarduzzi & Family
