Dave and I met Linda when she married our friend Carl. We've been friends for many years. We had a lot of good times together. Linda and Carl took us on our first trip to Las Vegas! We watched each other's children grow, Carl and Linda were like gypsies, always moving, but we always kept in touch. We're going to miss you Linda! Give Carl a hug from us and we'll meet again someday, so get that poker game going! Love you always!

So many memories, camping, card playing and of course your great potato soup and the crazy fun at the flower show we had. Life is precious and Linda your life was precious. You were truly a good person to everyone who will be missed, but knowing that no more pain or sorrow and your in heaven with Carl makes both Fuzzy and myself very honored to have you in our lives and called you friends. RIP always. Love Fuzzy and Linda Foland
