Rick and I are sending our heartfelt condolences to the entire family... And Linda, you will ALWAYS be family. We are keeping all of you in our prayers. Ted was a wonderful person. He was kind, caring and funny. I remember how his face always lit up when he talked about his grandkids. And then the great-grandkids! Oh my! He always knew how to make people laugh, usually with a Polish joke. It's always hard to lose someone you love but with the love and support from your family and friends you will all manage to get through the days ahead. You need to reach into your hearts every day now and pull out memories of him. Some will make you cry and others will make you laugh. Whether you laugh or cry it will show how much you loved him. The pain of your loss will hopefully fade but the memories will live on forever. There is one more player at the heavenly pinochle table. Love to all of you. Rick and Sue Vilcheck
